

Kyle Dixon

kwdixon@stanford.edu | LinkedIn

---

EDUCATION

Stanford University - Expected Graduation: June 2029

Prospective Major: Political Science, B.A.

---

SERVICE EXPERIENCE

Racial Justice Act Volunteer Intern, LA County Alternate Public Defenders

- Assisted implementation of the Racial Justice Act to combat judicial system racism
- Inspected and summarized case materials and transcripts to review claims
- Reviewed national, state, and county statistical research for RJA analysis
- Developed questionnaire for clients to help identify specific claims inside cases
- Survey developing technologies like AI analysis of transcripts

Frosh Service Liaison, Haas Center for Public Service

- Elected to lead connecting first-year peers with public service opportunities and resources
- Facilitating weekly engagement by sharing service opportunities, fostering community with fellow liaisons, and participating in service leadership-building workshops
- Collaborating with the Haas Center staff and student leaders to identity and plan service events and development

Media & Memos Committee Member, Stanford Decarceration Collective

- Conducting policy research and analysis for the Media & Memos Team, synthesizing legal frameworks, legislative proposal, and criminal justice data to inform clear, actionable policy recommendations for partner organizations
- Authoring and editing policy memo briefs, to support grounded investigations into criminal justice system impacts and reforms

LEADERSHIP

Leading Member, Stanford International Affairs Society

- Director and Writer for a Stanford University Model United Nations Joint Crisis Committee, developing complex crisis narratives, procedural materials, and delegate guidance
- Co-Chaired and staffed the Stanford Model United Nations Conference, a major annual event that hosts hundreds of delegates, guiding debate and managing conference logistics
- Selected for the Model United Nations Travel Team in collegiate conferences simulating high-states diplomacy, negotiation, and strategic policy debate

Frosh Civic Leaders Fellow, ePluribus Stanford and McCoy Family Center

- Year-long fellowship emphasizing critical inquiry, pluralism, and dialog across differences
  - Advancing the campus-wide ePluribus initiative through structured dialogue, reflection, and collaborative programming
  - Collaborating with faculty and peers to strengthen democratic standards, institutional trust, and civic respect
-

SKILLS

- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite, Google Suite, and Adobe Workshop
- Fluent English, Elementary German